turn, forwarded it on to Senator Bridges saying that he wished the Senator would look into this as the State Department has not been helpful in the matter. In order to advise the Senator, Mr. Deachman thought possibly we had some information on the case. CI Staff has been requested to furnish the necessary facts, if any.

25X1A 4. Cord Meyer telephoned indicating that there were some views that [ ] now the [ ] representative in Laos would be recalled to Washington for discussions with the Porter Hardy Subcommittee. Meyer was concerned that his services are urgently needed at this time. After checking the matter with Richard Bray, Cord Meyer was advised that while they had talked with [ ] at one point here in Washington and would like to talk with him again if he were here, they had no plans to attempt to contact him for return to Washington since the matter was not sufficiently important to warrant the expense. 25X1A

5. Talked with Kenneth Sprankle and discussed the appropriateness of attempting to establish an appointment with Congressman John Rooney through the Appropriations staff man whose name is Jay Howe. Sprankle advised that it would be better to contact Rooney directly.

Attempted to reach Congressman John Rooney who was not in his office and left a message that the Director wished to meet with him and possibly Frank Bow and could Legislative Counsel please discuss this with Mr. Rooney to furnish him with further information and make any necessary arrangements.

6. Talked with Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, who has read the Deriabin material and believes it is most useful and he has recommended that the Subcommittee request his appearance. In view of Senator Dodd's interest in the matter and his activities in current hearings, the matter will not come up until after 1 May. Sourwine stated that he would call me shortly before that date officially to request that arrangements be made.
